2019 HOLIDAY PLANNING GUIDE

The office holiday party is back...

The Holiday Season is upon us again! Company holiday parties still appear to be in vogue and now is the time to start thinking about your annual year-end celebration. September may sound like it's too early to book your holiday party, but that's a good thing! You will never regret securing a great venue before the best locations are already picked over. Starting early will give you more options as the availability will be wide open, and you'll save by taking advantage of early booking fees.

A recent study from the Society for Human Resource Management Survey found almost 65% of HR professionals indicated their organizations were having an end of year/holiday party open to all employees, 83% said their organization had a budget in place for this event. About 82% of HR professionals mentioned their organizations were participating in charitable donations.

Furthermore, holiday parties create a sense of belonging within a company, helping increase employee engagement and the overall positive employee experience. Here at the Chamber, we believe that 2019 will be a year for great holiday celebrations, just another one of the positive economic indicators that suggest our companies are hiring, and that our economy is growing stronger.

This holiday guide brings together a large selection of venues, restaurants, caterers and other party planning vendors who can help you plan the holiday party your company and employees deserve. Let the holiday season begin!

Celebrate the holidays in Carlsbad’s newest spot

One of San Diego’s most anticipated restaurants of 2019, Black Rail Kitchen + Bar, has finally opened its doors here in Carlsbad! With a design inspired by the luxury social clubs of 1940’s New York City, Black Rail has quickly become a huge attraction within the La Costa community.

Black Rail’s Southern California coastal-inspired cuisine is paired with a craft cocktail program, local beers, and regional wines.

This stylish new spot has brought a unique flare to the upscale Plaza Paseo Real Center with its chic ambiance, deeply flavorful dishes, and elegant drinks. Black Rail owners, Carlsbad residents Grant and Jenny Gottesman, pride themselves on developing unique concepts. Black Rail is named after a small, elusive bird that used to be quite common in Carlsbad, but is now scarce due to habitat loss. The name represents an appreciation for our beautiful community and speaks to concerns about preserving our local environment. Black Rail supports other local businesses by partnering with them to deliver high-quality ingredients. The Southern California coastal-inspired cuisine is paired with a craft cocktail program, local beers, and regional wines. As Carlsbad continues to flourish, locals agree that Black Rail has added an alluring new element that La Costa has been lacking: an upscale restaurant + bar with plenty of space for special events. Following in the footsteps of its sister restaurants, Tinleaf and Beach Plum, Black Rail looks forward to hosting various special functions. With a lavish main dining room, comfortable cocktail lounge, semiprivate back room, and spacious patio, Black Rail is the perfect venue for intimate groups or large private parties. Beach Plum Kitchen, located in the same center, was voted the number one spot in San Diego and eighth best in the country for brunch by Yelp reviewers. With its New England charm, it is the perfect venue for a Saturday afternoon baby shower brunch. Tinleaf Fresh Kitchen, celebrating its ninth year of serving fresh, delicious comfort food in a casual setting to the residents of La Costa, is looking forward to its newly revamped patio adjacent to Black Rail. Tinleaf also offers take-home family-style meals along with business-to-business catering.

Street tacos are a great way to satisfy large groups. With flexible protein choices, all taste buds will be happy and your guests will be coming back for more throughout your party. BevMo! offers a local event specialist to take the stress out of party planning.

Your guide to the perfect holiday party bar

BevMo!, the leading alcohol retailer on the West Coast, is a great solution for stocking up and planning for your next party, corporate event or holiday gathering. There are currently 16 BevMo! stores in San Diego County, offering everything from wine, spirits and craft beer to cigars, glassware, bar accessories, specialty foods and craft sodas. BevMo! provides complimentary delivery on local orders over $500.

The intimate customer experience at BevMo! is paramount to their success. Each store has a team of resident BevMologists with extensive product knowledge. They'll help you figure out what to serve and how much you'll need based on the guest count. Ask a BevMologist for help pairing wine, beer or cocktails with your menu.

BevMo! also offers a local event specialist to take the stress out of party planning. Their advice is to keep it simple. They'll help you select a red, white, sparkling wine and signature cocktail. Private tastings are also available upon request.

Here's another tip: keep the bar from becoming overcrowded by setting up two separate bars—one for beer and wine and the other for mixed drinks. A cocktail bar stocked with standard spirits, plenty of mixers and fresh fruit is ideal for self or full service.

Established in the Bay Area in 1994, BevMo! offers hundreds of rare and exclusive releases you won't find anywhere else. In addition to offering beverage education, including in-store tastings and classes, BevMo! also donates 100% of all proceeds from their weekly tastings go to San Diego Humane Society.

Visit your new Carlsbad BevMo! at 2662 Gateway Rd in Carlsbad. Call the store at 442-232-2094 or 855-MYBEVMO to speak to an event planner. Check out their brand new website at bevmo.com.

Good tidings and good cheer abound at Aviara this holiday season.

At Seasons Restaurant, we have found that the key ingredients to a successful holiday party are good champagne, a good venue, and great food. The life experiences shared around the table set the frame for the year we are soon to leave behind. There is no better way to celebrate than to have unrushed time to talk openly while sharing a delicious meal together.

Invite your guests to mingle beforehand on the Seasons Veranda at a hosted reception, where they can enjoy inspired cocktails and seasonal hors d'oeuvres. Dinner follows in Seasons Private Dining Room with a family-style three-course meal, featuring entrees such as succulent braised beef shoulder served with celery root and fennel puree, heirloom carrot and pomegranate glaze.

Under the direction of Chef de Cuisine James Waters, Seasons Restaurant specializes in seasonal, market-driven cuisine, with an ever changing menu that honors our local farmers, ranchers and fishermen. In this stylish and modern interior space, our culinary team puts the spotlight on the food, allowing it to shine.

Seasons Restaurant specializes in seasonal, market-driven cuisine, with an ever changing menu that honors local farmers, ranchers and fishermen.

"I love the special traditions that are formed around a good holiday meal," says Chef Waters. "Cooking to create personalized experiences and lasting memories have become the cornerstone of the restaurant."

Depending on the size of your party, private holiday dinners can be held in Seasons Private Dining Room, an airy space that can seat up to 32 guests, or at the Chef's Table, seating 12 guests with a view of all the action inside the Seasons kitchen. Both spaces exude a casual, modern warmth that will have you and your guests feeling relaxed and at home. Festive décor adds to the holiday spirit.

When it comes to the spirit of the season, nothing is better than sharing the occasion with friends, family and those closest to you. Seasons Restaurant offers guests a welcoming experience where they can come together to share incredible food, gracious service and an evening of holiday memories.
