Pickleball, which is best described as a cross between tennis and ping-pong, is played singles and doubles on a court that's 44ft x 20ft. You can fit four pickleball courts on a regular size tennis court. Great for all ages the sport started in 1965 on Bainbridge Island, a short ferry ride from Seattle, Washington. Three dads whose kids were bored with their usual summer-time activities -- are credited for creating the game using a thin small board and a ball. The original purpose was to provide a game that the whole family could play together.

The Club was created by local Carlsbad resident Shawn Walker. Walker owns Event Management Solutions Inc. which operates multiple paintball parks including world-famous The Paintball Park at Camp Pendleton.

The Club is open seven days a week from 8 a.m.- 8 p.m. There are open play times, private reservation times, a weekly beginner clinic, private lessons, and even a free "power hour" for people to come check out the sport. Carlsbad gastro brewery shares their passion for craft beer and small plates

If you follow the craft beer scene, you perhaps already know of the award winning, industrial-chic brewery, tucked away in the business park of southwest Vista, one mile from Palomar Airport road.

With 15 different styles of methodically crafted beer on tap and a beautifully designed space, it is no wonder that Ebullition Brew Works was voted 2018 Best North County Brewery by San Diego Magazine

The company currently has a full restaurant and tasting room, Ebullition Brew Works & Gastronomy, located in The Square at Bressi Ranch. And like the Vista location, the local owners are making sure a customer centric experience is nothing less than perfect.

As founder and partner, Jesse Richardson put it, “We don’t want to make craft beer and food that people enjoy. We want to make craft beer and food that people crave.”

This marketing mix and philosophy of catering to a number of diverse tastes is punctuated by every item on the menu and broken down into two sections of small plates and handheld noshes: 1. Familiar, nuanced local favorites with a twist, and 2. Intrepid, international cuisine. It’s not enough, either, that the food and beer stand on their own.

Ebullition is emphatic that they pair well together, almost harmonically. Jesse states, “If you leave our establishment thirsty, hungry, or just plain dissatisfied, we have done something wrong.”

Highlights of the Bressi Ranch location:

- Full bar & patio

Korean hot wings tossed in gojujang sauce and served with miso ranch dressing

- Small plate or “Tapas style” menu from here and around the world
- Full Ebullition craft beverage menu including other local brands of beer, wine, cider, mead, sake, Kombucha, sodas, teas, and coffees

Highlights of their nearby brewery:

- 15 styles of craft beer ranging from light to dark, bitter to mild, complex to straight forward
- A 12K year historical beer timeline
- Beer system that pours from bottom up
- Take-out crowlers and growlers
- Free, live entertainment
- Family and dog friendly

Chef Albert Serrano sets the bar for North County seafood

Bluewater Grill Carlsbad continues to wow seafood fans, local foodies and visitors alike in Carlsbad Village. The destination restaurant opened in late 2017 to offer North County residents California's freshest, just-off-the-boat sustainable seafood in an atmosphere of casual coastal style.

Since its debut in the heart of the Village, Bluewater has established itself as the go-to source for sustainable seafood and shellfish, weekday happy hours, monthly tastings and wine pairings, and a distinctly neighborhood vibe.

Chef Albert Serrano is making a name for himself in North County and beyond by introducing a number of new lunch and dinner dishes that leverage Bluewater's access to up to 40 varieties of fresh sustainable seafood and shellfish annually. From Pacific Swordfish harpooned in local waters to Grilled Whole Fish and San Francisco Cioppino with Black Mussels, he is adding his own local gourmet preparations regularly to offer diners a new experience every time.

Meanwhile, General Manager Sean Fryt, a North County resident, welcomes customers to a stunningly redesigned space. Owners Jimmy Ulcickas and Richard Staunton worked closely with the City of Carlsbad to create the perfect contemporary fish house destination with reimagined dining room, a new bar and lounge area and fresh market and retail counter offering locally caught seafood and local wines.

Perfect for North County summers, the new space also boasts two new outdoor dining patios for alfresco dining.

Like all Bluewater neighborhood locations, Bluewater Grill Carlsbad is committed to not only serving the freshest seafood

Chef Albert Serrano is introducing lunch and dinner dishes that leverage Bluewater's access to up to 40 varieties of fresh sustainable seafood and shellfish.

but also pioneering sustainable fishing and farming practices.

To date, more than 90 percent of the choices on Bluewater's menus are sustainably caught or farmed – among the highest of any restaurant in California. Bluewater founders also operate the fishing vessel, Pili-likia, to provide customers with the freshest, sustainably-caught seafood.

Says Serrano: "It's been a thrill to introduce Bluewater's legacy of the freshest sustainable seafood to North County. Given Carlsbad's role as a sophisticated resort and vacation town, we knew that it would be a perfect fit."

Bluewater Grill, located at 417 Carlsbad Village Drive, is open for lunch and dinner daily. Hours are 11am to 9pm Monday through Thursday, 11am to 9:30pm Friday, 10:30am to 10pm Saturday and 10:30am to 9pm Sunday.

GelatoLove opens new location in East Village San Diego

GelatoLove, the popular Carlsbad gelateria, is now expanding to the East Village San Diego inside RoVino The Foodery. San Diegans in and around the East Village are now able to experience for themselves the latest GelatoLove flavors, a variety of cakes and desserts, plus a full Italian coffee bar featuring Barini Coffee debut in the US.

Since its opening in 2015 in Carlsbad Village, it was GelatoLove intention to bring from Rome to California the authentic art of homemade gelato making. GelatoLove is the first company in the world that uses a revolutionary low-calorie sugar, found in fruits like kiwis and figs. The name of this amazing product is allulose and it is a completely plant-based product. One small cup of our handmade gelato (4 oz) contains less than 5 grams of added sugar.

Rovino The Foodery was born as a natural progression, from the 5 stars Little Italy restaurant RoVino, to become San Diego's largest Italian market in 2019. The East Village Location offers sandwiches, pasta, pizza, salads, coffee, gelato, desserts and a full bar menu. Since its opening of the first restaurant in 2016, RoVino The Foodery was awarded with the San Diego Magazine prize for Best Desserts in 2019, Best Sandwiches in 2020, and Best Catering Services in 2021.

In addition to gelato, guests can also indulge in coffees from Barini, an Italian roaster for 50 years and their first retail location in the U.S. will be at GelatoLove.

My robust passion for all things skin care and taking care of others is something very innate to me. Luckily my passion is my profession! Please allow me to introduce myself, my name is Insiyah. I am new to the San Diego area but have over a decade of experience in dermatology as a Nurse Practitioner. Originally a native from Kentucky, I have lived all over the US. My family and I recently made the decision to move from Sacramento, as the pandemic had us reevaluate the importance of being closer to our friends, who are more like our family. It already feels so serene living in this environment and watching my 7-year-old son thrive.

Having worked as a Nurse Practitioner in medical office for the past 13 years, I really saw the opportunity to slow down a patient's visit and give full concierge service and take the time the person deserves to really educate them on the 'why' of their services.

Skin cancers, precancer, and sun damage is something very prevalent in southern California. Numerous time I have evaluated a patient for lasers or something aesthetics - but end up diagnosing them with a precancerous lesion or take a biopsy before we can continue with cosmetics. I feel this also taps into the importance of going to someone with complete knowledge of the skin.

"I truly enjoy walking someone through the medical side of dermatology and then the aesthetics. This is where many people see how well faceted your credentials are and allow you to gain a lot of trust."

es in a relaxed, comfortable atmosphere. If you are hosting the party at home or at your office, PKG offers convenient takeout, online ordering, curbside pickup, and (contactless) delivery options. As well, they offer a catering menu so you can easily pick and choose your favorite items as trays and feed everyone.

For example, the meats used are antibiotic/hormone-free and humanely raised, sourced from reputable vendors like Wayne Farms and Cedar River Farms. Whether it's the kabobs freshly grilled to order, the falafels handcrafted with pure garbanzo beans and herbs, the tiramisu baked in-house on-premises, or even the salad dressings and hummuses, their staff carefully prepares each dish from scratch in-house (instead of using pre-made, frozen meals) so you can enjoy the tastes and comforts of a homemade meal without wasting precious time that may be better spent with loved ones instead. Holiday fiesta at our casa or yours

If you're looking to spend the holidays in a fun and festive environment, Diane Powers' Casa de Bandini in The Forum Carlsbad is a must. A favorite county-wide, Casa de Bandini wows guests with its award-winning cuisine, refreshingly giant margaritas, vibrant atmosphere and festive décor.

Casa de Bandini's dishes are made with the freshest ingredients and original regional recipes, accompanied by an extensive selection of specialty margaritas and hand-made, served hot-off-the-grill flour tortillas. The menu includes favorites such as fresh fish tacos, sizzling fajitas, traditional combination plates and delicious burritos, plus an abundant selection of healthy Mexican salads, vegetarian choices, and a full gluten-free menu. Specialties include Mole Poblano, Carne Asada Tampiqueña and Tequila Lime Shrimp, a famous creation introduced by Casa de Bandini in the 1980s that's been a customer favorite ever since. The dish includes Pacific wild shrimp sautéed with tequila, lime and butter, then seasoned with garlic, crushed chili and cilantro atop arroz amarillo, and served with a side of black beans.

Only the freshest ingredients are used for the restaurant's award-winning cuisine, including 14 salsas and sauces made fresh daily. In addition to its delicious dishes, Casa de Bandini offers an extensive collection of more than 90 tequilas, over 15 specialty hand-made margaritas and, of course, the famous "Bird Bath" margarita.

Originally opened in 1980 in Old Town State Park, Diane Powers took inspiration for her restaurant from Juan Bandini – a Peruvian who immigrated to San Diego as one of early California's first Dons. Also influenced by Mexico's early period of elegant living and dining, Powers filled Casa de Bandini with beautiful art collections from Peru and magnificent gilt gold mirrors. Outside, many long-time diners may also recognize the Mexican Cantera stone fountain centered in the Talavera tiled pool as the same one from the original Casa de Bandini in Old Town. Powers found this magnificent, hand-carved piece in the late 1970s during a trip to Guadalajara.

Casa de Bandini also offers a fun, welcoming venue for special events all year round. Whether celebrating a small holiday party of 25 or a large office banquet of 125, this seasoned staff can turn any event into a vibrant fiesta! With custom event menus that offer a wide range of choices, there is something for everyone at your party. If you're hosting the party at your home or office, Casa de Bandini is a full-service caterer and can design custom menus for any event.

No matter the occasion, it's always a fiesta with Casa de Bandini!
