Let Casa de Bandini bring the fiesta to you

Turn your holiday party into a fiesta at Casa de Bandini! Bringing Diane Powers' famous Mexican flair to The Forum Carlsbad, Casa de Bandini's vibrant dining rooms, heated patios, splashing fountains, strolling musicians, refreshing margaritas and authentic Mexican cuisine will give your guests something to rave about.

Whether you're hosting 25 or 125, Casa de Bandini's seasoned staff helps get the job done and will really "wow" your guests. Select from an abundance of different banquet and catering menu options, including gluten-free, vegetarian and healthy dining selections made with only the finest ingredients and paired with homemade sauces using original and regional recipes. Diners will also delight in sampling the hot-off-the-grill tortillas made by hand every day in Casa de Bandini's tortilla kitchen, located in the middle of the restaurant.

In addition to its award-winning cuisine, Casa de Bandini offers an extensive collection of premium and specialty tequilas, with more than 95 varieties to choose from, over 15 specialty hand-made margaritas and, of course, the famous "birdbath" margarita. Add even more festive flair with a serenaded evening by Casa de Bandini's world-class Latin American folk band, TINKU.

Decorated with hand-crafted furnishings, fine Mexican folk art, and colorful hand-painted murals, guests feel the warmth and romance of Mexico as soon as they enter the door. Host your gathering on Casa de Bandini's large patio featuring a lush, vibrant garden of hand-selected succulents and cacti, in the grand dining room that is reminiscent of early California haciendas, or in the Sala de Santos surrounded by beautiful artifacts and antique hand-carved figures depicting images and representations of saints and cultural folk art from across Latin America and Mexico.

If you're hosting the party at your office or home, let Casa de Bandini bring the fiesta to you! A full-service caterer, Casa de Bandini can design custom menus for any event, and will provide the caring service that customers have come to expect from this North County icon. Patrons can also order a fiesta to-go by calling ahead, and picking up trays of hot, ready-to-eat dishes to take wherever the party is.

Whether you're hosting an intimate holiday gathering with family and friends or celebrating the most wonderful time of the year with your entire staff, Casa de Bandini is the ultimate destination for spreading festive cheer.

Make the Most of Your Company Holiday Party this Year

As the summer glow begins to dim for the comforting cool of fall, holiday plans are top of mind for many companies. The end of the year is a great time for colleagues to get together and celebrate their annual achievements and yet, party planning can feel like a full-time job. Let's navigate how you can start planning your company event.

Choose a Theme

Themed parties are an everlasting trend and finding an appropriate theme can inspire everything from décor to gifts to attire and unite your guests in anticipation. Find whimsy with classic themes such as Winter Wonderland or go formal with a black and white, or silver and gold theme. Once you've settled on a concept, finding a suitable venue is next on the list.

Find a Venue

Choosing a theme can go hand in hand with choosing a venue. With a more formal celebration, a chic charcoal exterior and modern interior location like the Carlsbad Windmill by Wedgewood Events can perfectly compliment your look. This iconic landmark boasts an expansive and recently renovated grand hall and inviting terrace patio for a variety of gathering spaces. We recommend exploring all-inclusive event venues such as this to save time and money and to take care of all the additional details including food, staff, bar service, and more. On that note, let's talk party timelines.

Plan the Party Timeline

In working with your chosen venue, you'll be able to gauge your day-of timeline based on how much preparation time

The Carlsbad Windmill by Wedgewood Events can perfectly compliment your look no matter what type of event you're having.

you'll need. Some companies like Wedgewood Events can prepare your space, while others may be hands off, so asking about day-of support is crucial. With a more hands-off venue, plan on arriving a day prior or up to 6 hours early to prepare the space. Tables, chairs, and structural items will need more time for set up while final décor can be handled the morning of the event. From that point, plan the rest of your event in one-hour increments. If you decide on an awards ceremony, allow for 2-5 minutes per award. Your timeline is a great reference for your supplemental vendors as well so be sure to ask them how much time they will need for set up and break down and incorporate it to your plans.
